

Purveyor Review Sheet

Company: Mountain Rose Herbs (Eugene, OR)

Website: <https://www.mountainroseherbs.com>

What They Provide

- Bulk organic herbs, spices, teas, and botanicals—trusted for specialty and culinary needs
- Offers a wide range including essential oils, carrier oils, sprouting seeds, seaweed, tinctures, salves, and bath & body ingredients

Farming & Quality Standards

- Founded in 1987, long-established grower, processor, distributor, and retailer of organically and ethically sourced botanicals
- Commitment to certified-organic first, or, if unavailable, ethically wild-harvested or chemical-free sourcing, with affidavits for wild harvests
- Robust quality control and testing protocols including pre-ship sampling, organoleptic inspection, lab analysis, and quarantine before release

Why We Consider Them

- Leader in sustainability and ethical business: first fair-trade certified herbal supplier in the U.S., zero-waste platinum facility, Oregon Benefit Company status
- Deep community involvement with initiatives like the Mountain Rose River Project, Rootstalk Festival, and Free Herbalism Project

Things to Keep in Mind

- Delivery may take longer than mainstream e-commerce due to careful handling and packing
- Prices reflect premium, ethical, and small-scale sourcing—expect higher costs than mass-market alternatives

Family Decision

Please mark your preference:

Approved – We are comfortable using Mountain Rose Herbs for our bulk spices and botanicals

Not Approved – Please do not use this purveyor