

Purveyor Review Sheet

Company: D'Artagnan

Website: <http://www.dartagnan.com>

What They Provide

- A wide range of gourmet meats and game: foie gras, charcuterie, organic poultry, game birds, and more
- Specialty items: truffles, wild mushrooms, caviar, pâtés, and more

Farming and Quality Standards

- Sourced from small farms and cooperative networks with humane and sustainable protocols
- Green Circle™ chicken: regeneratively raised, certified-humane, pasture-fed on Amish and Mennonite family farms
- Beef: includes grass-fed premium beef (including Australian Wagyu), raised humanely on pastures
- Berkshire pork: pasture-based, antibiotic-free, raised on cooperative family farms

Why We Consider Them

- Pioneer of the farm-to-table movement, respected among chefs and consumers
- Restaurant-grade quality: widely used by top chefs and fine-dining establishments
- Strong reputation for clean, artisanal, and heritage-quality products

Things to Keep in Mind

- Products are premium and often higher in cost than grocery store meats
- Shipping arrives frozen in insulated packaging, requiring freezer storage
- Acquired in 2022 by Fortune International, but standards and quality remain in place

Family Decision

Please indicate your preference:

Approved – We're comfortable with using D'Artagnan products in our meals

Not Approved – Please do not use these products

Notes or Special Requests:
